SPEAKER NICHOL PRESIDING

SPEAKER NICHOL: Reverend Ed Hallock of the South View Baptist Church in Lincoln. Reverend Hallock.

REVEREND HALLOCK: (Prayer offered.)

SPEAKER NICHOL: Thank you, Reverend Hallock. Roll call please. Will you please record your presence. Please record your presence. Senator Marsh, would you record your presence and then we can start. Thank you. I didn't mean to interrupt. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: There is a quorum present, Mr. President.

SPEAKER NICHOL: If I might have your attention for a moment, ladies and gentlemen, we are going to start with Final Reading this morning on 433 which is a long bill and we will relax the rules during this hour long bill and approximately five minutes before they are through reading it we will put the word out over the PA system so that you will know to come back if you have gone back to your office or somewhere else. In addition to that, Senator Labeledz is going to be late and she has asked that we put 174 at the bottom of the Final Reading which we will do. After we come back from 433, we will take up the reports and motions and so forth when more will be here. I do appreciate your coming early to check in. Mr. Clerk, do you have anything before we start on LB 433?

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator DeCamp would like to print amendments to LB 239 in the Journal. I have study resolutions, LR 90 from Senator Vickers. It calls for a study of the current curriculum and graduation requirements applicable to the State's secondary schools and secondary students; LR 91 by Senator Vickers calls for a study of the issues relating to the competency, quality, and compensation of teachers and teaching in Nebraska's elementary and secondary school system; LR 92, Mr. President, offered by Senator Vickers which calls for a study relating to school schedules. All three will be referred to the Executive Board.

SPEAKER NICHOL: With that we will begin on Final Reading with LB 433.

CLERK: (Read LB 433 on Final Reading.)
